

Titus #1

Chapter 1

- 1) What is one thing God is not able to do?
- 2) Verse 2, the writer says he is “in hope of eternal life”. The word translated “hope” here actually means “expectation”. It is not like “I hope my team wins the championship (but I know it probably won’t happen)”. If God promises something, and He cannot lie, do we “hope for it”, in the “wish” sense, or do we “hope” for it, in the sense of “expectation”?

- 11) Sometimes those who are not believers claim to be believers (Christians). Sometimes you can tell who they are. Fill in the blanks in this verse about these phony Christians:
Titus 1:16 “They _____ (claim) to know God, but by their _____ they _____ Him, being detestable and disobedient, and worthless for any good deed.”
